Giving the Right Signals; Keeping Competence on Track

ASPECT 2012 - 10th September 2012
Will Scott
Introduction

Competence

- “the behaviours (and, where appropriate, technical attributes) that individuals must have, or must acquire, to perform effectively at work – that is, the terms focus on the personal attributes or inputs of the individual.” (Egan, 2012).
Politics/Economics
Environment
Compliance/Law
Recommendations

Potential

Tools

Process

Competence

Culture

Capability