

IRSE Professional Examination

EQUIVALENTS/ALTERNATIVES

AUTHORISATION AND REVISIONS

Version 1.0 issued 1 November 2007

Version 1.1 issued 18 November 2013

THE FOLLOWING COURSES ARE CONSIDERED TO BE EQUIVALENT OR PROVIDE AN ALTERNATIVE TO THE STANDARD OF THE IRSE PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATION

1. The Indian Railways Secunderabad – Gazetted Officers Course in Signalling

Membership applicants who have passed the Indian Railways Secunderabad course(s) in signalling and have gained a pass in the IRSE Professional Examination Module 1, Safety of Railway Signalling and Communications, will be considered to have an exemption from taking the full IRSE examination.

2. The Graduate Diploma in Railway Signalling offered through Central Queensland University, Australia

The level of a Distinction in the CQU Graduate Diploma in Railway Signalling is considered equivalent to a Pass in the IRSE Professional Examination and membership candidates with this qualification will be accepted as having an exemption from taking the IRSE examination.

The level of a Pass or Credit in the CQU Graduate Diploma in Railway Signalling, when coupled with relevant professional experience, is considered to provide an appropriate equivalent qualification for a candidate to offer for IRSE membership. (Byelaw 2.6 refers)
