IRSE Council
Chair: George Clark (President), plus 2 vice presidents, 18 ordinary members (10 Fellows, 6 Members and 2 Associate Members) and 3 co-opted past presidents.
Members are both Directors and Trustees of the IRSE.

Education & Professional Development Committee
Chair: Neil Porter
Accountable to Council for the direction and supervision of the IRSE's educational and professional development activities.

Licensing Committee
Chair: Colin Porter
Directs and supervises the IRSE’s Licensing scheme in accordance with the Regulations approved by Council.

Membership & Registration Committee
Chair: Gary Simpson
Acts on Council’s behalf in all matters concerning the consideration and progress of applications for membership and registration and makes recommendations to Council for the same.

Recruitment, Marketing & Publicity Committee
Chair: Andy Knight
Oversees and plans the IRSE’s communications with its members, potential new members, employers, industry and the wider world.

International Technical Committee
Chair: Frans Heijnen
Undertakes studies of particular topics of medium to long term interest and produces reports.

Younger Members’ Committee
Chair: Keith Upton
Promotes technical and social interaction between young railway S&T engineers to assist their education, training and development towards higher grades of IRSE membership.

Audit Committee
Chair: Ian Bridges
Reviews on behalf of Council the quality of its internal management systems and makes recommendations.

Finance Committee
Chair: Markus Montigel (immediate past president)
Manages the finances of the IRSE and makes recommendations to Council on investments, subscriptions and other business matters.

Management Committee
Chair: Daniel Woodland (senior vice president)
Considers and makes recommendations to Council on all matters affecting the policy and development of the IRSE. Supervises the organisation of the Convention, visits, conferences, social events, etc.

Enterprises Board
Chair: Markus Montigel (immediate past president)
Responsible for the management of IRSE Enterprises. Members are Directors of IRSE Enterprises.